Plaintiffs, by their attorneys, The Law Offices of Michael J. Thoren, hereby allege, upon information and belief, as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a civil action brought by the Plaintiffs, to compel the Defendant and those acting under her to take action on the visa petition (USCIS Form I-130) filed on Mrs. Eda Nar’s behalf and the application for adjustment of status (USCIS Form I-485) filed by Mrs. Eda Nar with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (hereinafter USCIS), and which Defendant and those acting under her have failed to take timely action on.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 USC §1331 (federal subject matter jurisdiction) in conjunction with 28 USC §1361 (mandamus), the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) (5 USC §555(b), and the Immigration & Nationality Act and regulations implementing it (Title 8 of the CFR).
3. Under 28 USC §1331, “(t)he districts courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.” There is jurisdiction under 28 USC §1331 because this action arises under 28 USC §1361 (mandamus), the Administrative Procedures Act (APA) (5 USC §555(b) and 5 USC §702), and the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and regulations implementing it (Title 8 of the CFR).
4. Under 28 USC §1361, “(t)he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.”
5. The APA requires USCIS to carry out its duties within a reasonable time. The provision of the APA that provides this is 5 USC §555(b), which states that “(w)ith due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives and within a reasonable time, each agency shall proceed to conclude a matter presented to it.” USCIS is subject to 5 USC §555(b). Mrs. Nar contends that the delays in processing her application for adjustment of status are unreasonable.
6. Both the regulations and the INA provide numerous examples of duties owed by USCIS in the adjustment of status process. 8 USC §1103 states that “[t]he Attorney General shall be charged with the administration and enforcement of this chapter and all other laws relating to the immigration and naturalization of aliens.” (emphasis added.) The Code of Federal Regulations further provides that “[e]ach applicant for adjustment of status under this part shall be interviewed by an immigration officer,” 8 CFR §245.6 (emphasis added); and, most importantly, that “the applicant shall be notified of the decision of the Director, and, if the application is denied, the reasons for the denial,” 8 CFR

§245.2 (emphasis added.) The language of the statute and these regulations is mandatory, not discretionary, and requires the Defendant to adjudicate the adjustment of status application.

7. Venue of this action is proper under 28 USC §1391(e)(3). The Defendant maintains her office in this district and the USCIS Office in this district is adjudicating the plaintiffs' applications.

III. PARTIES

8. Plaintiffs Oguz Aranmaz and Eda Nar are husband and wife. Mrs. Nar is a native and citizen of Turkey. Mr. Aranmaz filed a visa petition (Form I-130) simultaneously with Mrs. Nar's application for adjustment of status (Form I-485), which was received by the Defendant on November 13, 2005. One of the Defendant's Examiners interviewed the Plaintiffs concerning their applications on June 15, 2006. USCIS has yet to take action on their applications, even though the interview took place almost two years ago. USCIS has not provided plaintiffs or their attorneys with any information regarding the status of these applications. Since it is unknown whether any action has ever been taken on the visa petition that Mr. Aranmaz filed on behalf of his wife, both he and his wife have been named as plaintiffs. Mr. Aranmaz is the proper plaintiff for the Defendant's failure to act on the visa petition. Mrs. Nar is the proper plaintiff for the Defendant's failure to act on the adjustment of status application.
9. Defendant, Michael B. Mukasey is Attorney General of the United States and is sued in his official capacity. He is generally charged with enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and is further authorized to delegate such powers and authority to subordinate employees of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Defendant, Ruth A. Dorochoff is District Director for the Chicago District Office of USCIS and is sued in her official capacity. As such, she is the Attorney General's designate for the Chicago District, charged with the duty of administration and enforcement of all the functions, powers, and duties of USCIS. On November 25, 2002, the President signed into law the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (Pub. L. No. 107-296), which created the new Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Pursuant to the provisions of the Homeland Security Act, DHS came into existence on January 24, 2003. As provided by the Homeland Security Act and by the Department of Homeland Security Reorganization Plan of November 25, 2002, as modified (Reorganization Plan), the functions of the INS of the Department of Justice, and all authorities with respect to those functions, transferred to DHS on March 1, 2003, and the INS was abolished on that date.

IV. FACTS

10. Mrs. Nar is a native and citizen of Turkey. She was born on January 01, 1974.
11. She entered the United States in January 2001, on an F-1 ("student") visa.
12. On August 12, 2005, Mrs. Nar married Mr. Oguz Aranmaz, a citizen of the United States.
13. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Aranmaz and Mrs. Nar filed simultaneous applications, Form I-130 and Form I-485, respectively, with USCIS. (See Exhibit 1).
14. On June 15, 2006, a USCIS District Adjudications Officer interviewed Mr. Aranmaz and Mrs. Nar at Kluczynski Federal Building (230. S. Dearborn Street), Chicago, Illinois. At the conclusion of the interview, the officer told the couple that she would process the case and inform them of her decision soon. (See Exhibit 2).
15. On February 9, 2007 and March 1, 2007, Mrs. Nar contacted USCIS via telephone to inquire about her application. She was asked to wait 6 more months in both instances. (See Exhibit 3). She contacted USCIS via telephone several times before these dates but received no written acknowledgment of her phone calls.
16. On August 8, 2007, Mrs. Nar, through her newly retained counsel, The Law Offices of Michael J. Thoren, submitted a written inquiry to the Chicago District Office of the USCIS. Defendant responded with a standardized letter stating that the case is under review. (See Exhibit 4).

17. On January 11, 2008, the Law Offices of Michael J. Thoren submitted another written inquiry to the Chicago District Office of the USCIS. There was no response from the Defendant. (See Exhibit 5).
18. Neither the plaintiffs nor their attorneys have been advised as to the status of the Plaintiffs' visa petition and adjustment of status application.

V. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

19. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 18 above are repeated and realleged as though fully set forth herein.
20. Mr. Aranmaz and Mrs. Nar have complied with all of the requirements for seeking adjustment of status for Mrs. Nar.
21. The Defendant has willfully and unreasonably delayed and has refused to adjudicate the visa petition and application for adjustment of status.
22. The delay in adjudication is not attributable to the Plaintiffs.
23. The Defendant owes Mrs. Nar a duty to adjudicate the visa petition and adjustment of status application and has unreasonably failed to perform that duty. This duty is owed under the INA and regulations, as well as by the fact that by charging a filing fee, USCIS created for itself an obligation to process and adjudicate the application.
24. The delay is unreasonable per se.
25. The delay is unreasonable in light of the fact that Plaintiffs have been interviewed. Since the fact-finding has been completed, there is no reason for any further delays.
26. The delay is unreasonable in light of the fact that the Plaintiff has had to renew her employment authorization (EAD) once subsequent to the adjustment of status interview, and further, her most recent EAD will expire on November 18, 2008.
27. The delay is unreasonable in light of the fact that USCIS has been unable to adequately respond to any of the Plaintiff's inquiries on their applications.
28. By making numerous inquiries on the status of the application, Mr. Aranmaz and Mrs. Nar have exhausted any and all administrative remedies that may or willingness to adjudicate the Plaintiff's application for adjustment of status.

WHEREFORE, and in light of the foregoing, Plaintiffs, Mr. Aranmaz and Mrs. Nar, pray that the Court:

- A. Assume jurisdiction herein;
- B. Compel the Defendant and those acting under her to perform their duty or duties to adjudicate the visa petition and application for adjustment of status;
- C. Grant such other and further relief, as the Court deems appropriate and just;
- D. Grant attorney's fees and costs of court.
